

EARS TO HEAR

Rabbits rely on their keen sense of hearing for safety. God has given us ears to hear His Word. He is asking each one of us to open the door of our heart and let Him come in (Revelation 3:19-20).

YOU WILL NEED:

- Pink Embroidery Floss
- Black Embroidery Floss
- 2 White Pipe Cleaners
- 2 Small Black Beads
- Uncooked Dry Rice
- Chunky Chenille Yarn
- 1 Big Sock
- Roll of Tape
- Ribbon
- Needle
- Thread
- Scissors

DIRECTIONS:

1. Slip the top of the sock up through the hole in the tape roll. Turn the edges down over the ring.

5. Straighten the top of the sock. Cut it in half down the middle.

9. Sew on two black beads for eyes. Embroider on a pink bunny nose and black eyebrows.

2. Pour the rice through the ring into the sock until it is about 2/3 full.

6. Cut the ends of the ears, shaping them to a point.

10. Cut three pieces of chunky yarn. Sew two pieces on for arms.

3. Wrap several layers of thread around it to close it tightly and knot the thread. Repeat this a few times, then snip off any excess thread.

7. Bend two pipe cleaners in the middle. Twist each one together at the bottom. Insert them into the middle of the rabbit's head. Wrap thread around the base of the ears several times and tie a few knots. Cut off the excess thread.

11. Wrap the third piece of chunky yarn in a spiral and sew it to the back for a fluffy tail.

4. Pour more rice through the ring into the sock, adding about half the amount as before. Wrap it tightly with thread close to where the heel begins. Tie a knot. Do not cut off the extra thread this time.

8. Sew the ends of the rabbit's ears to the pipe cleaners. Cut off the excess.

12. Tie a bow around the rabbit's neck. Big bunny ears listen carefully. Let's be good listeners, especially to God's Word.
